She loved it! She was also an excellent piano player, and filled our home with music. She was active in her current church at Mt. of Olives in Mission Viejo, California. Nicky was a life master of bridge, loved playing cards, was an amazing gourmet cook, loved to golf, and loved to entertain family and friends. Nicky spent countless hours creating creative memory (photo) albums, doting on her children and grandchildren. Nicky was soft-hearted, friendly, was giving and generous with her time and talents, loved to create memories with her family and friends, was caring, kind, loved people and creating relationships, was loving, protective, faithful, was musical, was always a bright light, helpful, was someone you would turn to when you needed advice, and will be greatly missed by all.
