Guess I wasn't good in expressing in my emotions, and I missed my chance in telling you. Love you forever, and your smiling and vibrant face will always be in front of my eyes.

The time you all spent together is a beloved memory that helped more than you know and that we all can help keep evergreen. Whatever support you may need now and into the future, you can consider it done, all you need do is ask. I hope we can lend some comfort to the pain.

“ Priyanka- it will take me forever to accept that we won't meet again. It's impossible to write down everything about you in words. Whenever I visualize you, I see the jubilant, ever smiling, childish girl that I knew. We spent a lot of time together and you always lighted the place up with your smile when you entered a room. All those vacations, those Friday nights at restaurants, all major celebrations and the sleepovers are the memories I will cherish forever. You were very positive till the very end and that is what matters. I know you must be worried for Aanya but I am sure Vinay is an amazing dad and he will take care of her as you wished for. Your mom and Ankita are two angels that god has sent and he has given them another chance to live with you in the form of Aanya. I can go on forever but I will end by hoping that you are in a better place and my condolences to your family. May god give them the strength to bear this emptiness in their lives...

“ Kind , warm , trustworthy, patient , strong , courageous ,wise add a cheeky sense of humour... That's our Priyanka ! Or Pinks as we would call her... I remember our so-called group study at San's place, definitely more talk than textbooks and of course Pinks would provide us with all her counsel ...And how we would go from San's to Priyanka's for her MasterChef Maggi ! And many many more amazing little memories... Pinks you were there for me when I needed a helping hand, when I was vulnerable and not in a good place . You taught me to trust again and truly believe that real friends exist. You smiled and remained positive and strong regardless of your pain. You motivate me Pinks.. you give me hope and courage..saying goodbye isn't for us so I will say I love you Pinks .. I will cherish our memories , our friendship forever. " Best friends are those who make you laugh louder , smile brighter and live better" thank you for being such a wonderful friend. You were and are a blessing to me. You are a real gem of a friend... So shine on my lovely little diamond... Love you forever

It's a monologue... I am in conversation with her cause she is still there , watching over us , not from the heaven above but from our heart which has always been her abode .

Sonu we haven't met from past 16 years ... but doesn't seem like ages just yesterday . We have lived our childhood so full of happiness & contentment that it still feels the same like yesterday . You being my little talkative sister have always occupied a special place in my heart . A very warm person with billion dollar smile , with very practical approach without overpowering your kind emotional side ... balancing life beautifully , dancing to the tune of love & spreading happiness everywhere has been the trait of your personality. I loved & will always love you Sonu . I really miss our endless conversations , your remarks, your twisting of words and making it sound so funny , your style of talking while you were in the best of your mood ,the twinkle in your deep eyes while you smiled ear to ear and your voice . You were too much love my love . You were stubborn ..yes and had decided to go out of sight first Sonu , but always remember we will follow your trail eternally and we will meet againwait for Us .

“ Our entire family is so sorry for dear Priyanka’s loss. Her untimely death has come as a shock to all of us. Every time we saw her or got her SMS or talked to her, we found her a very lively and jubilant girl. My wife Rashmi was in constant touch with her through WhatsApp. Every time she will conceal her sufferings and will show utmost concern for our well being. It's hard to understand why God has taken her life. May be God has a plan for her, no matter how hard it is for us to see. We, the entire family, are grateful to have known her and she will always be remembered as the sweet, gentle, fun, Priyanka. “ Dearest Priyanka , you were like a sister to me ... you had this warmth, this charisma, this effortless charm, that instantly melted boundaries and made people comfortable with you.... Even when u went through the toughest battles, you radiated strength, positivity and till the 23rd of June when we last chatted , you always just answered ‘I am recovering’ ‘I am healing’ when I asked how you were doing.... You fought like a lion and shone like the sun.... I hope you know how deeply you are loved, respected and cherished; and what a beautiful legacy you’ve left behind..

You reached out to me, 15 years back on yahoo messenger and we haven’t met in 13 years, but the bond with you is unbreakable, you’ve taken a piece of my heart with you.

A is my daughter too, I will be there for her. You’ve fought the toughest battle, now rest in peace and watch over all of us. You are a shining star in the sky that we will keep looking up to. Vinay, we are there with you.

It's really hard to believe that she's not with us anymore. Whenever I see my pictures with her, it makes my eyes wet and forces me to ask God why he had to take her. Sadly, I will now have no one to call Didi. You will always remain in my heart and memories. I pray to god to have you my sister in next birth too! Lots of love!
