

Soledad Correa Urias

March 29, 1934 - November 25, 2019

Soledad Correa Urias, 85yrs of age passed away on the morning of Monday, November 25th, 2019. She passed in her own room, at home, knowing people she loved were nearby. Soledad had Alzheimer's. She slowly declined, until God decided to call her home. She was looked after and taken care of by those she loved.

Soledad was born March 29th 1934, in San Fransico Del Oro, Chihuahua, Mexico. She learned early on about adulthood as both her parents Jesus and Concepcion Correa died early in life. She raised her siblings without hesitation. In Mexico prior to getting her citizenship, Soledad was a teacher for young children in elementary school. She was loved and revered by everyone.

Soledad is survived by her 2 younger brothers Roberto and Manuel Correa. Her sister Vicenta and brothers Julian, Ceferino, and Carlos had all passed years prior.

She is also survived by a large family!! Her son's Joseph, Hector (also deceased), and Arthur Urias along with her 3 daughters Guadalupe, Ramona and Gabriela Urias.

In addition to her children and family she leaves her grandchildren Norris Dixon Jr, Jennifer Dunlap, Elizabeth and Daniel Urias, Bleu, Tausi and Indy Urias and Avery. Along with her grandchildren she is survived by her Great Grandchildren Matthew and Colton Urias, Maya & Raimund Dixon her miracle babies, and Cruze & Cali Urias. She was so cherished and loved by every single one of them.

Soledad was a smart, funny, strong willed, beautiful woman who showed her love for each of us in very different ways!

She will be cremated, so the church service for Soledad will be 12/13/19 at 11:30am at Saint Polycarp Catholic Church

8100 Chapman Ave.,

“ Dearest Gaby & Family - I will always remember your mom making me laugh even though I didn't have the privilege of meeting her. How you ask? The old UPS PAC Region days when you sat in front of me. She would call and I would over hear one side of a Spanish conversation and in most cases it would be so funny. Can't really explain it but to hear Gaby repeat herself over and over always made me laugh. I hope memories of her always make you smile like they make me smile. Much Love – Leticia “ Abuelita siempre la llevaré en mi corazón y nunca olvidaré el amor y el cariño que nos dio, siempre nos lleno de bendiciones y su amor por nosotros era infinito. La quiero con todo mi corazón mi viejita chulo, que diosito me la tenga en su santa gloria y espero algún día volverla a ver para abrazarla y darle un beso y sentir esa ternura que solo usted sabía dar abuelita.
